User level	- Application of schemes already implemented. - Usage of XML and VTK files. - No coding and recompilation
Intermediate user/developer level	- Level for new schemes to be implemented. - Communication with the core through the Nauticle interface. - Knowledge of the code core is not required.
Core developer level	- Development of new features. - Code optimisation. - Paralellisation.